

Month	saying / fact	saying / fact
January	month of Janus (the god of gates and doorways)	 Janus: a two-faced god
February	Februar was an Etruscan spring cleaning rite	(the first "r" is silent)
March (1st month of Roman year)	named after the war god Mars	March comes in like a lion ,	and goes out like a lamb

April	April ☂ showers ☂ bring May 🌸 flowers 🌸	maybe from Latin aperire , "open," or from an Etruscan goddess Apru
May	named for the Greek Goddess Maia	"All things seem possible in May"
June	named for the Greek goddess Juno	 june bug
July	named for Julius Caesar /czar/kaiser	Hot July brings cooling showers, apricots and gilliflowers
August	named for Augustus Caesar /czar/kaiser	The [^] in août means that ¹ something is missing. Wha t is missing?
September	seventh month	-er
October	eighth month
November	ninth month
December	tenth month

¹ means that = veut dire que